Born in the bougiest trailer park on the south side of Highland, Illinois, White Trash Millionaires have been turning bars, dives, and questionable parking lots into full-blown rock carnivals since 2019.

Their mission is simple:
Pack the dance floor from the first chord to last call.

With a high-energy mix of feel-good rock, hair metal, and crowd-favorite anthems, every song gets the White Trash Millionaires treatment—recognizable enough to sing along, cranked up enough to blow expectations.
